

ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
ATTORNEY GENERAL
OF THE
STATE OF MICHIGAN, FOR THE YEAR 1882.

BY AUTHORITY.

REPORT.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,
ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Lansing, December 31, 1882. }

To the Honorable, the Legislature of the State of Michigan :

In accordance with the laws of this State I have the pleasure to submit to your honorable body the following report of the official business done in this department.

Schedule "A" contains a full report of all cases brought up from Circuit Courts, and Superior Courts having like jurisdiction, to the Supreme Court, on exceptions or error, in which I have appeared on behalf of the State.

They show a large aggregate of cases for 1882, numbering 39, of which the People's cases are classified as follows:

Adultery.....	1	Larceny.....	4
Arson.....	2	Murder.....	6
Assault.....	1	Rape.....	1
Assault with intent to murder.....	3	Resisting an officer.....	1
Bastardy.....	2	Robbery.....	4
Burglary.....	3	Seduction.....	1
Embezzlement.....	2	Receiving stolen goods.....	1
False pretenses.....	2	Violating liquor law.....	3

It is perhaps proper to say that several of these cases would not have been found in the Supreme Court, had our courts below noticed more fully existing laws, or amendments thereto; notably the law requiring on plea of guilty an examination of the prisoner by the court, as required by Act No. 99, Laws of 1875, and the decisions of the Supreme Court thereon.

The case of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Co. vs. W. Irving Latimer, Auditor General, is one of great importance to the State, especially in a financial view, involving as it does claims against this company for about 120,000 and interest, due the State as we claim for back taxes.

Judge William B. Williams, late Railroad Commissioner, and Hon W. Irving Latimer, late Auditor General, believing the former method of taxation on this road to be improper, and not within the intent of the law, upon consultation with the Attorney General concluded to demand taxes from said road as provided in the general railroad law, approved May 1st, 1873, as follows:

"SEC. 3. Every company formed under the provisions of this act shall, on or before the first day of July in each year, pay to the State Treasurer, on the Statement of the Auditor General, an annual tax upon the gross receipts of company, computed in the following manner, viz.: Upon all gross receipts" etc. (specifying rates). "And when a railroad lies partly within and partly without this State, there shall be paid such portion of the tax herein imposed, as the length of the road operated lying within this State bears to the whole length of the operated portion thereof."

The demand was made, payment refused, and thereupon it became the duty of the Auditor General to issue his warrant for the collection of the same, but as it was desirous on the part of the company, as well as the State, to obtain a construction by the court as to the question of their liability to taxation under this act, it was agreed that it should be brought to an issue in an amicable manner, and with as little cost and delay as possible.

To this end the railroad company filed a bill in the chancery side of the Ingham county Circuit Court with the Auditor General as defendant, restraining him from the collection of said taxes, under the warrant about to be issued or issued by him therefor.

The case is now pending and at issue, and will be argued as soon as possible, and from there, without doubt, it will go to the Supreme Court and be finally determined.

Some time after my accession to the office of Attorney General, there came into my hands for collection a note for $2,200, given by Miner, in settlement for trespasses committed by one McElroy, on State lands.

Soon thereafter Miner went to California but without payment of the note, as McElroy had enjoined him from payment thereof, claiming that no such amount of timber had been taken by him from State lands. A decree was however rendered in favor of the State, and an appeal to the Supreme Court was about to be taken by McElroy, when negotiations were entered into relative to the note, by Hon. J. D. Turnbull, then a member of the Legislature from Alpena, and upon his representations to the Commissioner of the State Land Office and myself that Miner had sold out and gone to California, and would pay only $1,100 for the note, and believing we must take that amount or nothing, we accepted that sum in payment of the note.

Having soon thereafter learned that Mr. Miner, previous to his departure, had deposited $2,200 in the bank at Alpena for the payment of said note, and that Mr. Turnbull had full knowledge of that fact when he represented to us that Mr. Miner would pay only $1,100, steps were taken to recover the note from Turnbull, and finally a bill of interpleader was filed by Miner, making the parties to whom Turnbull had transferred the note and the Commissioner of the State Land Office defendants.

The case was heard, a decree rendered by the circuit judge in favor of the holders of the note, and the case has since been appealed to the Supreme Court.

There is now pending in the Circuit Court for the county of Clare two chancery suits, and one in replevin, growing out of the attempts of the State, through the Auditor General, to collect quite an amount of specific taxes due the State.

The sheriff is enjoined from any further proceedings, until the final decree of the court thereon.

As these cases will raise the question of how far the lien of the State will follow property liable originally for taxes into the hands of purchasers thereof, they bid fair to be of great importance and interest to the State.

Schedule "B" is a report of chancery causes commenced in the courts of the State during the year 1882, in which the State was but nominally interested, and in which the Auditor General was a nominal party. These cases were referred to the prosecuting attorneys of the counties where the suits arose, as has heretofore been the practice in this department.

The number of cases of this class have materially decreased during the past year, arising perhaps from the change in the laws relative to taxation and other subjects.

Schedule "C" contains a list of cases in which quo warranto proceedings were by me authorized, but being of local interest, they were conducted by the attorneys of the parties interested, and not by the Attorney General.

I have endeavored in the past year to give opinions to officers of all grades, who have desired it, and while this has given much greater satisfaction than a refusal to comply with requests therefor, yet at times it has resulted in delaying the work of the office.

Although the work has taken all my time for the past year, I am disposed to continue this course, save where opinions have been asked by private individuals. To this class I can only advise a resort to private counsel.

During the past year a very valuable work has been performed under my direction by the present clerk of the Supreme Court, Charles C. Hopkins, Esq., and his deputy, who have thoroughly reërranged the records of the Supreme Court, and put them in order, so that everything pertaining to each case can be readily found, and the decision of the courts thereon quickly and definitely ascertained, whereas, heretofore great confusion existed among the records and papers; especially among old cases from the Detroit office.

The late day at which the reports of many of the prosecuting attorneys are received delays very much the issue of this report, and recommendations which might be made, if the report could be issued in the first fifty days of the session, become useless thereafter, and therefore matters of interest, to which the attention of the Legislature should be drawn, have been presented to individual members and not in the shape of a report.

To obtain the reports of all the prosecuting attorneys of the State requires labor, and continual urging for prompt reports from them.

The relations of this office with those of the other departments of State have been pleasant and agreeable, working together for the best interests of the State.

Almost my entire time has been employed in the duties of my office, while my chief clerk, Mrs. Mary A. Miles, by her thorough knowledge of the business thereof, has made herself indispensable.

J. J. VAN RIPER,
Attorney General.

SCHEDULE A.

JANUARY TERM, 1882.

1. In re, Hugh S. Peoples. On January 24th Hugh S. Peoples, charged with the murder of Martha Whitla, was brought before the Supreme Court on writ of habeas corpus.

The police authorities of the city of Detroit were led to believe that a murder had been committed, and that Hugh S. Peoples, the petitioner, was guilty thereof. Peoples claimed his discharge from custody substantially upon two grounds: (1) That there were not facts enough to show that any crime had been committed, and (2) that there were not circumstances enough, if there were any, to touch the petitioner. The court after mature deliberation held that "when there was good reason to believe that a murder had been committed and a person is detained on reasonable grounds of suspicion to await examination before a police magistrate upon the charge of having been concerned therein, a higher court will not interfere, pending the examination, to relieve him on habeas corpus." Also that the preliminary examination of a person charged with a crime, especially if a non-bailable offense, must be made promptly, and should not be put to await the mere convenience of the magistrate or prosecuting officer. The writ was denied.

2. Reuben Hall vs. The People. Error to Eaton Circuit. Hall was convicted of the crime of rape. The Court held that it was competent to show on his behalf that the previous relations between him and the prosecuting witness had been of a friendly character, although such evidence would have no tendency to show that criminal relations existed, or that her reputation was bad. Judgment reversed, and new trial ordered.

3. Vincent C. Holcomb vs. The People. Error to St. Joseph Circuit. The Attorney General confessed error.

4. Jacob Hobson vs. The People. Error to Tuscola Circuit. Hobson was convicted of selling liquor on a legal holiday, being January 1, 1880. The Court held that the punishment of an offense under an old statute, is not inconsistent with a new law which repeals acts inconsistent therewith, but which applies only to future cases. On certiorari no errors are considered that were not made a ground for allowing the writ. A stay of execution does not affect the judgment, but only the time of its enforcement. Judgment affirmed.

5. Albert Moore vs. The People. Error to Gratiot Circuit. Moore was convicted of the statutory burglary of breaking and entering a store not adjoining to or occupied with a dwelling house, with felonious intent. Under such a charge if it be proven that the store does not adjoin or is occupied with a dwelling-house, there can be no conviction. Held, that the evidence did not support the information, and judgment reversed.

6. Albert Fairchild vs. The People. Error to Mecosta Circuit. Fairchild was convicted of arson, and sentenced to State prison for life. A person charged with arson is also charged with being personally present where he could commit the offense: and where a plea of not guilty is interposed to an information for arson, the jury must acquit if on the whole evidence they have a reasonable doubt as to any material fact, covered by the essential averments, including the actual participation of the accused. Judgment reversed, and a new trial granted.

7. William T. Ferguson vs. The People. Error to Bay Circuit. Ferguson was charged with larceny from the person, and pleading guilty was sentenced to imprisonment. The prisoner claimed that the Circuit Court erred in not complying with act No. 99, of the Laws of 1875. The Court held that the validity of a sentence, pronounced upon a plea of guilty, does not depend of its appearing of record in what manner the judge may have proceeded to satisfy himself that the prisoner acted freely in pleading guilty. Judgment affirmed.

8. Richard Sligh vs. The People. Error to the Superior Court of Grand Rapids. Sligh was convicted of larceny from the person, and sentenced to State Prison. He was jointly informed against with one Jones, who was proven to have taken the money, but tried separately. The Court held that where more than one person is concerned in the original guilty purpose of committing larceny from the person, all who are present aiding and abetting are principals. But one who afterwards receives the stolen property, without being in any wise concerned in the original purpose, is guilty of larceny alone. Judgment reversed and new trial granted.

9. The People vs. Augustus W. Hensler. Exceptions from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Hensler was convicted of obtaining the endorsement of a promissory note by false pretenses. Judgment affirmed.

10. Horace Becker vs. The People. Exceptions from Saginaw. Becker was convicted of the robbery of one Henderson in the city of East Saginaw. Exceptions not sustained, and conviction affirmed.

APRIL TERM.

1. Joseph B. Covycon vs. The People. Error to Ionia Circuit. The only error relied on in this case, is that the circuit judge did not make the necessary examination to determine that the plea of "guilty" was freely made.

Held, that there can be no assumption under the facts stated that the prisoner acted in ignorance or under compulsion. Judgment affirmed.

2. The People vs. Lulu Mortimer, Exceptions from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Respondent was convicted of an assault with intent to murder George C. Morris.

The court held that it is an assault upon a person to intentionally shoot him with a pistol loaded with ball. Uncontrollable anger and excitement do not excuse the commission of desperate acts of violence, whatever the provocation, and render them less liable to punishment. Judgment affirmed.

3. The People vs. Thomas Craig impleaded with Eli Lemond. Error to Recorder's Court of Detroit. An information was filed against Craig and Lemond, charging them with robbery. Separate trials were had. Exceptions were taken to the manner of drawing the jury and the array was challenged.

It was held, that the error, if any, was cured by the judge's offer to have a new jury drawn from a box containing the names of all the jurors, the challenged jury not having been sworn, or the prisoner put in jeopardy. Judgment affirmed.

JUNE TERM.

1. The People vs. James Jones. Error to Schoolcraft Circuit.

Held, that a plea of former acquittal is prima facie sufficient, if it shows that a jury had been empaneled and that the prosecution went into proofs by witnesses until they rested their case.

Judgment reversed and prisoner discharged.

2. Walter Crane, Relator, vs. Commissioner of State Land Office.

Case dismissed on request of relator, the order having been complied with.

3. The People vs. Charles W. McAllister. Error to Kalamazoo Circuit. McAllister was convicted of obtaining goods by false pretenses.

It was held, that that there was nothing which had any legal force to prove the crime alleged. Judgment reversed and prisoner discharged from State Prison.

4. Edwin N. Ely, Relator, vs. Commissioner of the State Land Office.

Writ denied with costs against relator.

5. The People vs. Henry H. Parkhurst. Exceptions from Muskegon. Parkhurst was convicted of embezzlement.

The court held that in a prosecution for an embezzlement of a sum exceeding $25, where no felony is made out, defendant should have the benefit of defects in the proof by an instruction that, on the evidence, respondent is entitled to an acquittal. A new trial ordered.

6. The People vs. George Miller. Error to Ingham Circuit. Miller was convicted of an assault. Judgment affirmed.

7. The People vs. John Moran. Exceptions from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Verdict set aside and new trial granted.

8. The people vs. Jeremiah Stackhouse, impleaded with Josiah Stackhouse. Respondent was convicted of the crime of arson. The court held that a witness in a criminal case cannot be impeached by showing that out of court he had expressed suspicions as to the respondent, which on cross-examination he says he does not remember expressing. Judgment reversed and a new trial ordered.

9. The People vs. Sophie Lyons. Error to Washtenaw Circuit. Convicted of larceny from the person. Many points were made by the Court, and it was held as a fatal error for a judge to tell the jury that "if he were in their place, he should give no weight to the testimony of a certain witness, and very little to that of another." Judgment reversed and a new trial granted.

10. The People vs. John Simpson. Error to Superior Court of Detroit. The respondent was convicted of murder in the first degree, having shot his wife. In a prosecution for murder, the offer of dying declarations should be preceded by evidence that they were actually made in expectation of impending death. Conviction sustained.

11. The People vs. Nathan C. Hall. Error to Oakland Circuit. Hall, after two trials, was convicted of the murder of his wife by poisoning. The Court found several errors in the action of the lower court, among which are—the difference between the information charging murder and the sentence of the court; the proceedings to summon jurors, in violation of the jury law of 1877; the violation of the rights of the accused in allowing the names of witnesses to be added to the information during trial; that the credibility of a witness is affected by his having been convicted of an infamous crime; and that the reading of medical books to the jury as evidence is not permissible. Judgment reversed and a new trial granted.

12. The People vs. Robert M. Donald. Error to Muskegon Circuit Court. Donald was convicted of embezzlement. Held that the information is defective for not stating its value, if the money embezzled consists of checks and certificates of deposits. But the defect is open to amendment. Also held that under the statute, § 7811, Comp. Laws, an information cannot be sustained by evidence of acts committed before the time stated. Conviction set aside and prisoner discharged.

13. The People vs. Peter Ormsby. Error to Recorder's Court of Detroit. Ormsby was tried and convicted on an information charging robbery. The Court held that after the regular conviction of a person charged with crime he can no longer insist on being personally present in court for further proceedings, such as the disposition of the motion for a new trial. Judgment affirmed.

14. The People vs. James Haley. Error to the Superior Court of Grand Rapids. Haley was convicted of the offense of resisting an officer. Held, that an officer has no right to arrest without a warrant, for any breach of the peace not committed in his presence. Judgment reversed and new trial granted.

15. The People vs. John Crawford. Exceptions from Macomb Circuit. Crawford was convicted jointly with one Albert of larceny. Held, that defense can only demand that the instructions on the legal points shall be correct, and that the evidence shall not be commented upon or presented in an incorrect or unfair way. Conviction affirmed.

OCTOBER TERM.

1. The People vs. George Phalen and Michael Croniger. Error to Kent. Action brought on recognizance in a bastardy case. It was decided that the police court of the city of Grand Rapids has jurisdiction in bastardy cases, and that the recognizance in a bastardy case requires the party to appear from day to day as may be necessary, until trial, and is not discharged by an appearance on the first day of a term of court, and no appearance afterwards. Judgment reversed and new trial granted.

2. The People vs. Valentine Kohler. Error to Mecosta Circuit. Information for murder. The Court held that a conviction for murder in the first degree cannot be sustained on evidence that the accused, after quarreling with deceased, and while retreating before him, had fired at him after warning him to "keep back or he would shoot," and while in apprehension of serious personal injury. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.

3. The People vs. Daniel F. Comstock. Exceptions from Mecosta Circuit. Comstock was convicted of an assault with an intent to kill and murder. The Court held that though the blow was unjustifiable, the evidence would not sustain a charge of assault with intent to kill. Conviction set aside and new trial ordered.

4. The People vs. Sylvester Parks. Exceptions from Berrien Circuit. Parks was convicted of selling liquor to a habitual drunkard by the hand of his clerk. Held, that a liquor dealer cannot be held criminally responsible for the sale of liquor by his clerk and without his knowledge or concurrence to habitual drunkards. Case dismissed.

5. The People vs. Robert McKinney. Exceptions from Recorder's Court in Detroit. Respondent was convicted of using stolen property with guilty knowledge. Conviction sustained.

6. The People vs. August Waldvogel. Exceptions from Calhoun Circuit. Waldvogel was convicted of keeping his saloon open on Sunday. The Court held that act 259 of 1881, requiring saloons to be kept closed on Sunday is violated if a saloon is allowed to be open, whether for the sale of liquor, for cleaning up, or for any other business purpose; and the question of the proprietor's intent is immaterial. Conviction sustained.

7. The People vs. Amos Broughton. Error to Osceola Circuit Court. Respondent was convicted of adultery. Testimony was given to show that he told some one that he intended to have the woman's husband arrested for adultery. Respondent denied this, and witnesses were allowed to contradict him for the purpose of impeaching him. Held, that the fact, if it was one, had no bearing on the case and was prejudicial to respondent. Judgment reversed.

8. The People vs. William Lane. Exceptions from Wayne Circuit. Respondent was convicted of an attempt to murder by administering morphine. Held, that in a prosecution for an attempt to murder, the respondent's unsupported confession is not sufficient evidence. Acquitted.

9. The People vs. Andrew M. Squiers. Exceptions from Jackson Circuit. Squiers was convicted of seduction. Reversed on ground that the charge of the judge was likely to mislead the jury. Conviction set aside and new trial granted.

10: The People vs. Timothy Harty. Certiorari to the Superior Court of Grand Rapids. Held, that the Superior Court of the City of Grand Rapids has no jurisdiction of a bastardy proceeding where it is alleged that the child was begotten in that city, but born in another county, and at the time of the trial is in the care of parties in such county. Proceedings quashed.

SCHEDULE B.

1. The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company vs. W. Irving Latimer, Auditor General of the State of Michigan. Circuit Court for the county of Ingham. This cause is at issue, and will be heard in the March term of the Circuit Court for the County of Ingham, in Chancery. The bill was filed by complainant, the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Co., against Hon. W. Irving Latimer, late Auditor General, to restrain him from the collection from said company of taxes upon gross receipts for several years back, which if legal, will result in placing in the State treasury the sum of about $124,000 back taxes.

2. Charles H. Hackley, Porter Hackley and Thomas Hume vs. Andrew E. Mack. Circuit Court for the county of Clare. In chancery. An injunction was issued restraining the defendant, who was sheriff of the county of Clare, from the collection of taxes due the State, by the sale of property upon which he had lived, by virtue of the warrant of the Auditor General, as provided by law. A replevin case is also now pending, growing out of the seizure of the same property.

3. Samuel H. Daniels vs. The Auditor General et al. Circuit Court for the county of Oakland. In chancery. Sept. 9th, received subpoena in the above entitled cause. Referred the same to Mr. Samuel W. Smith, prosecuting attorney of Oakland county.

4. Collins B. Hubbard vs. W. Irving Latimer and Calvin B. Crosby. Circuit Court for the county of Wayne. Dec. 4th, received subpoena in above entitled cause. Referred the same to Mr. James Caplis, prosecuting attorney of Wayne county.

SCHEDULE C.

Edward V. Cicott, Relator, vs. Eli Barkume, respondent. Application made to file information inquiring into the right by which Barkume assumes to be one of the trustees of the St. Anne's church of Detroit. Authority given to Mr. Alfred Russell to act in the matter. Pending.

*The above cases are reported to me as having been brought under the statute, sec. 7 of act No. 259, laws of 1881. The section referred to requires a fine of $10 and costs, or imprisonment in the common jail of the county not less than 10 nor more than 20 days, or both such fine and imprisonment, in discretion of the court. It is evident that the Legislature intended to punish public drunkenness more severely than has been or is usual under ordinary municipal police regulations. It is also evident from the foregoing report, that in many cases there has been a notorious disregard of the statute in imposing sentences. In some cases sentence was suspended upon payment of costs. These are cases in which the prosecuting attorney is rarely or never called, the justice determining the matter and imposing sentence without formal trial, generally upon plea of guilty.

†One defendant escaped jail. The other was tried in January, 1883, convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment.
